DESCRIPTION

The Mount Business & Conference Centre has, for years, been an established place for business, conferences, assessments and training.

Located five minutes from Belfast City Centre, The Mount boasts a wide range of serviced offices, a large selection of conference and training rooms, a superb in-house restaurant and plentiful on-site car parking.

Add to this over 20 years' experience in providing professional virtual office services, and The Mount is an ideal location for your business in Belfast.

As an independent Business Centre, The Mount provides everything customers need with a personal touch. Whether you need a small one person office for a short term or a whole floor for a longer term, The Mount can provide it.

With a fully furnished office at The Mount, you get a total package of features including the right support staff providing the highest level of services to both you and your clients, impressive reception areas and professionally trained staff to answer telephone calls in your company name and greet people on your behalf. The Mount ensure that your business is represented with the correct image and utmost professionalism.

The serviced office package includes all of the facilities and services such as a phone system (complete with voicemail), internet, office furniture, cleaning staff, photocopying facilities and reception staff, which makes moving into an office at The Mount hassle free.

The Mount benefits from conference and meeting rooms available to hire if required, along with the added bonus of an on-site restaurant.

ACCOMMODATION

The Mount can offer multiple options to suit your requirements. Please get in contact to discuss your space/desk requirements.

The Mount also offers top of the range conference and meeting rooms, which can be booked as and when required, subject to an additional charge.
