Description

The property comprises a self-contained ground floor retail unit within the well-established Market Parade development. Occupying a prominent position fronting directly onto St. Patrick Street, the unit benefits from excellent profile, an extensive glazed frontage and exceptional visibility to the high volumes of pedestrian traffic that characterise Cork's principal retail thoroughfare.

Internally, the accommodation is arranged to provide a bright, open plan retail sales area to the front, with office and storage accommodation to the rear. A substantial mezzanine floor further enhances the unit, offering versatile open plan accommodation suitable for additional offices, storage or ancillary business use.

This well-located unit presents an excellent opportunity for occupiers seeking a high-profile retail presence in Cork City centre.

Location

The unit is situated in the heart of Cork City Centre, fronting onto St. Patrick Street—Cork's premier retail thoroughfare—and forms part of the established and well-known Market Parade development.

Market Parade occupies a strategic position in a high-profile retail location, adjacent to the famous English Market, one of Cork's most iconic and busiest attractions. The development benefits from strong footfall levels due to its proximity to St. Patrick Street and its direct connection into the English Market, which in turn offers connections to Oliver Plunkett Street and Grand Parade further enhancing the connectivity and commercial appeal of the location.

This prime location offers excellent exposure and accessibility, making it an ideal setting for a wide range of retail occupiers.
